Responses:

During the FUEL weekend at Gulf Coast Bible Camp, four of our teens responded to the invitation (offered nightly during the devotionals) asking for prayers and wanting to be more like Jesus: Maurina Dalton, Katie Bundy, Keenan Colwell and Melanie Fryman. These are a great bunch of young people and we need to keep this group in our daily prayers.

And the Lord Added:

On Saturday, November 19, while at Christian Home and Bible School, Rob Bell had the pleasure of baptizing his daughter, Rebekah. The Mt. Dora Church of Christ happily opened their building and rejoiced with our teens and adults as they welcomed their new sister in Christ. The work weekend was a great success, made even more so by this wonderful news! Congratulations to the Bell family.

Thank You Note:

"Dear church members,
I want to thank so many members of Christ for sending me cards and coming to see me. I try to come, but some mornings, I am too weak to make it.

I love all of you and think we have a wonderful church and preacher. He is one of the best speakers we have had.

With love,

Lea Litton

Julie Brownlee extends her appreciation for the prayers on behalf of her granddaughter, Leilani Aletras, who was in labor and having difficulty delivering her baby last week. Thankfully, all went well and the prayers worked, as Leilani was able to deliver little Logan Michael, weighing in at 6 lb. 8 oz. Congratulations to Julie and the family on this great grandson!

Offering Envelopes:

The remaining 2012 offering envelopes are still available to pick up on the couch table in the foyer. There are a few extra boxes available and if you would like to begin using these, see Melissa for your box. Note: No written record is kept of your contributions unless the envelope is used.]

Not quite perfect

Perfection is an admirable goal. But even when you can't quite get it perfect, make sure you get it done.

Hold yourself to the highest standards. But don't make those standards so unattainable that you fail to make the effort.

Seek always to create great and useful value for others. But don't get bogged down in worrying about what others might or might not think.

Be careful and diligent in whatever you set out to accomplish. But don't be so worried about making mistakes that you fail to get anything done.

Go ahead, from where you are, with whatever you have, and make the effort. Even when conditions are far from perfect, there is still much progress you can make.

Focus not on the imperfections or limitations, but rather on the task at hand. And even when you can't get it perfect, you can make an important positive difference in your world.

Ralph Marston

"When you come to the end of your strength,
remember the name of the Lord is a strong tower,
the righteous run to it and are safe."

Proverbs 18:10

"Because He Himself was suffered when He was tempted, He is able to help those who are being tempted."
